NextGen Games to take centre stage at Wembley with the Sponsorship of Australian World Champion Jai Opetaiia in his First World Title Defence

Sydney, Australia 14th of September 2023 – NextGen Games, is thrilled to announce its exciting partnership with Australian World Champion Jai Opetaiia. In a historic collaboration, NextGen Games will be one of the sponsors for Opetaiia's first World Title defence, which is set to captivate audiences at Wembley Stadium in the United Kingdom. The fight on September 30 will be broadcast to a global audience live on Fox Sports Australia, Sky Sports NZ and DAZN.

Opetaiia, an accomplished and dynamic boxer from Australia, has been making waves in the world of professional boxing with his remarkable skill and determination. As the reigning World Champion, he is now preparing to defend his title against the undefeated Jordan Thompson and NextGen Games is proud to stand by his side throughout this thrilling journey.

This sponsorship marks a significant milestone for both Jai Opetaiia and NextGen Games, solidifying their commitment to excellence and their shared vision for the future of sports and entertainment. NextGen Games is at the forefront of innovation in the gaming and entertainment industry, recognized for creating unforgettable experiences that redefine the boundaries of entertainment.

"Our journey is fuelled by a simple yet profound idea: to leverage cutting-edge technology to create immersive, interactive, and socially engaging gaming experiences that transcend reality. We are incredibly excited to support Jai Opetaiia in his first World Title defence, aligning with our company's mission to provide thrilling and unforgettable experiences to our customers." said Trent Merrin, Ambassador and Sponsorship director of NextGen Games.

The World Title defence event featuring Jai Opetaiia promises to be a night of electrifying boxing with 2 World Title fights on the card. Fans can look forward to an unforgettable evening as Opetaiia steps into the ring to defend his World Title.

"Michael Francis, Managing Director of Tasman Fighters, also shared NextGen Games enthusiasm: 'Tasman Fighters are delighted to see Jai Opetaiia's journey as a world-class athlete and champion. His dedication and skill have made him a true icon, and we are proud to be part of this incredible journey. This partnership with NextGen Games is a testament to Jai's worldwide appeal and the excitement he brings to the sport.'
